killing of the Filipino patriot. . 3. By fighting against the Filipino patriots. . By killing, the Law of War or the rules of war is destroyed and also the governments' and peoples' right to peace, that is, the right to live. And also by organizing a re-enforcement system of . By all the above, the right of the Filipinos to have a government (government of their own), and the right of the Filipino people to be ruled by their own laws, government and people is totally violated and consequently, the Filipino people lose their rights to freedom and self-determination. So, the title of the article is justified to talk about this kind of circumstances. Freedom of the press in the Philippines The Freedom of the Press in the Philippines is totally violated. The journalists are punished and killed by the Government authorities or the private groups whenever they report about the situation and the mistakes of the Government authorities. The examples are the following: On the 9th of September 1982, at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Mark Diola, a correspondent of the radio-TV station, GMA 7, was driving in the streets of Manila, along Compostela St., Rizal St., Antonio Blanco St. and Del Pilar St., when he was shot by a hit and run car, killing him immediately. The first witness that arrived at the scene immediately was Manuel Diola, Mark's brother, who immediately reported the shooting to the police. The police officer of the area immediately conducted the investigation and later on the policemen of the Criminal Investigation and Detection Group (CIDG) investigated the case. But the people who killed Mark Diola were not punished, so the right to freedom of the press is violated. On the 30th of January 1984, in the early morning, Mr. Ramon Vicente, the chairman of the Commission on Elections (Comelec), was taking a walk along the streets of downtown Manila, when a motorcycle rider tried to run him down. But the police officer of the area immediately made a U-turn and tried to catch the motorcycle rider, but the rider is able to escape from the police vehicle. The police officer later on admitted that the rider tried to run down Mr. Ramon Vicente, but due to some reasons, he did not try to catch him. Another police officer who arrived immediately at the scene found the motorcycle 82157476af
